

Robb Report Russian to English translation

All transfers, security services and other logistic difficulties best to contact Targe Chauffeurs.

The biggest corporations and concierge services are using their services if it is concerning VIP clients when they are visiting Scotland.

Targe Chauffeurs fleet comprises of Mercedes E and S-Class saloons, however if customers require a Rolls-Royce it can be provided. The company also take responsibility to organize helicopter or jet charter flights. And also can arrange yacht charter for sea and river journeys including salmon fishing.

On top of all these services Targe Chauffeurs provides a professional security service.

Members of staff with in this organisation are well trained and professional. All bodyguards are licensed. Their services have been used by pop-stars and politicians of overseas visitors.

One of the very successful business directions of this company is a butler service which deals with the logistics of travel, hotel bookings, restaurants and tickets for events.

Targe Chauffeurs are ready to provide you with the most personalised of excursion tours.